PC knocks HC door, trial court in INX Media cases

NEW DELHI: Former finance minister P Chidambaram, who is in Tihar jail, knocked the doors of the Delhi High Court and a trial court on Thursday in connection with corruption and money laundering cases arising out of the INX Media scam. Chidambaram, who will spend his 74th birthday on Monday in the prison, pleaded for bail in the corruption case in the high court and sought permission from the trial court to surrender in the money laundering case.

A battery of senior advocates including his party colleagues from Congress, Kapil Sibal, A M Singhvi, Vivek Tankha and Salman Khurshid appeared for Chidambaram in the high court before Justice Suresh Kait who asked the CBI to file status report on his bail plea within a week and posted the matter for hearing on September 23.dambaram withdrew from the high court his another plea challenging the trial court's order remanding him to judicial custody till September 19, after the judge asked as to why he has filed two separate petitions. The high court allowed his submission and said the petition is "dismissed as withdrawn". Hours after the high court proceedings, Sibal along few iunior lawyers rushed to the special trial court at Rouse Avenue and argued that Chidambaram be allowed to surrender in the money laundering case lodged by the Enforcement Directorate (ED) in which the Supreme Court has declined to give him relief against the high court order dismissing his anticipatory bail.

Special judge Ajay Kumar Kuhar reserved the order for tomorrow. Chidambaram, who was the Union home minister and the finance minister during the UPA rule from 2004 to 2014, was arrested by the CBI on August 21 from his Jor Bagh residence. The matter before the high court came for hearing at 11:15 am when Solicitor General Tushar Mehta, representing the CBI, opposed the bail plea saying the case was at pre-charge sheet stage and the alleged corruption took place in 2007. Mehta and central government's standing counsel Amit Mahajan contended that during the investigation, it has emerged that Chidambaram used his official capacity for corrupt practices and received crores of rupees and FIPB approval was granted.

Chinmayanand's SIT quizzing delayed

SHAHJAHANPUR: The SIT probing a student's harassment allegations against Swami Chinmayanand on Thursday questioned the principals of two colleges here and had also asked the BJP leader earlier this week to appear before it. Sources said the special investigation team had this entire project is 1,380 sent a notice to the former Union minister to appear before it for questioning after 6 pm on September 9, but this could not take place.

Pak skips SCO military medicine meet in Delhi

HYDERABAD: Can animals also commit crimes? The answer of Telangana Police appears to be in the affirmative as they "arrested" two goats for grazing on saplings planted by a NGO. The bizarre incident occurred in Huzurabad town of Karimnagar district after the activists on Tuesday caught the culprits' "red-handed" and handed them to police. The goats were brought to the police station and tied to a pole in the premises. Police Inspector Vasamshetty Madhavi said that the goats were released after their owner paid a Rs I,000 penalty to municipal authorities on Wednesday.

AGENCIES New Delhi

Pakistan has abstained itself from the SCO's Military Medicine Conference that kicked off here on Thursday even as it is participating along with India in a joint anti-terror drill that is at present underway in Russia.

The conference on military medicine is the first military co-operation event under the Shanghai Co-operation Organisation (SCO) to be organised in India after it joined the organisation in 2017.

Defence Ministry sources said no official reason has been given by Pakistan for skipping the conference in New Delhi.

"An invitation was sent to Pakistan as well as all other countries of the SCO. Pakistan never responded to this invitation," a senior ministry official told IANS. Pakistan has skipped the conference even as it is participating in a joint anti-terror military drill under the SCO that is simultaneously underway in Russia's Orenburg. The 15-day-long military exercise began earlier this week. Apart from India and Pakistan and host country Russia, China and four Central Asian nations of Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Uzbekistan and Tajikistan - that also comprise the SCO - are also taking part in the annual military training exercise.

The two-day military medicine conference in New Delhi is being held in accordance with the SCO Defence Co-operation Plan 2019-20. Apart from the SCO nations save Pakistan, Sri Lanka and Nepal are participating as dialogue partners.
